-- Laos: REDD+ project in Luang Prabang Province through controlling slash-and-burn [Waseda University] --

The REDD+ technical team departed Japan and headed for the unexplored depths of the mountains in Lao PDR. To enhance forest management, the Houaykhing Village is challenging to reduce dependence on slash-and-burn agriculture. The technical team elaborates the strategy to make local residents possible to earn a living with enough yields without slash-and-burn.

Followed the advice from the technical team, the local residents cropped...
